

TO BE FIRST OF JUNE BRIDES

Roosevelt
Musical
on Tuesday

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt have issued cards for a musical next Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Bryce, wife of the British ambassador, has issued cards for at home on the afternoon of May 1.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pinchot will sail for Europe early next week, where they will visit their daughter, Lady Johnson, wife of the British minister to Denmark.

The Misses Mellon entertained at dinner last evening in their apartment in the Connecticut.

M. and Mrs. Albion Keith Parris celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with a large reception at their home in Georgetown. The drawing room was decorated with palms and white roses, the library with great bunches of American Beauty roses, and the dining room with pink carnations. The doors leading from the hall were hung with Southern smilax. Mrs. Parris wore a handsome gown of cloth of silver, with a deep yoke of rare lace with plumes of lace in the sleeves. Helping Mrs. Parris receive were Mrs. Henry Matthews, Mrs. William Ballentine, Mrs. Charles Fitch, Mrs. George Salter, Mrs. Herbert Fitch, Mrs. John Fitch, Mrs. Samuel Parris, Miss Westcott, Miss Parris, and Miss Howison. After the reception those assisting were entertained at supper. Mr. and Mrs. Parris, who were married twenty-five years ago in Philadelphia, were attended by little Miss Bessie Howison, a niece, who is now Mrs. Boyle of Philadelphia, and Master Percival H. Marshall, a nephew, who is now a well-known lawyer of this city. Mr. Parris was the only one of the bride party to be present at the reception last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Parris have four children—Albion Keith Parris, Jr., Worden Whitman Parris, of Oregon; Morris Addison Parris, and Miss Juliet Howison Parris.

Mrs. Alexander E. Patton, newly elected vice president general D. A. R., who has been staying at the New Willard during the congress, left yesterday for Philadelphia, where she will be the guest of honor at a large luncheon in the clover room of the Bellevue-Stratford by the Philadelphia Chapter today. She will be a guest of Mrs. Daniel Freeman of St. David's, on a trip to Valley Forge. May 23 Mrs. Patton, accompanied by her son, Alexander E. Patton, Jr., and her sister, Miss Edith Hill, will sail on the Amerika for Europe and visit Norway and Sweden.

Miss Lou Westcott, who has been spending a year abroad, has returned to town and is at the old Seminary on Thirtieth street, Georgetown.

Miss Julia Wilson sailed with Mrs. and Miss Totten for a summer abroad early last week, and during her stay will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Larrie Benet, in Paris.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Lida Virginia Kirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Kirk, of Baltimore, to Thomas Bond, of Syracuse, N. Y. The ceremony was performed yesterday in Baltimore, and the couple will be at home at 202 West Onondaga street, Syracuse.

Mrs. John A. Logan, president of the Garfield Memorial Hospital board, requests the women of the board, as many of them as possible, to attend the funeral services of Col. R. W. Rutherford tomorrow afternoon, as a tribute to the splendid work Mrs. Rutherford has done as secretary of the board for many years.

The naval attaché of the French Embassy and Mme. de Blanche have made arrangements for a long tour of this country, visiting only the principal cities. After this they will go abroad.

Bishop and Mrs. Satterlee were hosts at luncheon yesterday. Among their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Churchill Candee General and Mrs. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, and her sister, Miss Reese, who were married last week in New York, and came to this city in their motor car, Miss Reese was formerly Miss Lee.

Mme. Koerner, wife of the military attaché of the German embassy, who is here for children, will leave early May for Germany, where she will be joined later by Major Koerner, who will remain in this country until June 20 for the summer. Major and Mme. Koerner are now in Jamestown for the opening of the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Thoren were hosts at dinner last evening. Their guests were of the younger diplomatic set who were not of the party who went to Jamestown yesterday.

Mrs. Larz Anderson entertained at luncheon yesterday when Mr. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, was the guest of honor.

Holtzman
Wedding
In June

The wedding of Miss Florence Holtzman, daughter of William F. Holtzman, and Thomas R. Weymouth, of Oil City, Pa., will take place in Washington June 1. Miss Holtzman has been continuing her studies in singing in Paris for the last eighteen months, but will sail on May 3 on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, with a party of friends who are coming over for the wedding, reaching Washington about May 15.

After the wedding the couple will spend some time at Miss Holtzman's camp in the Adirondacks, Owy-O-Out, after which they will go to Oil City and spend the remainder of the summer at the Rockwood Club, of which Mr. Weymouth is president.

Miss Holtzman will not give up her singing. She will return to Paris September 1, and will make her professional debut there. She has a repertoire of a number of operas, and is pronounced an artist by the most severe critics. Mr. Weymouth promised his co-operation in this professional career before the engagement was announced, and is quite as much interested in her success as she is.

Miss Louise Koehler-Heupel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heupel, of Mt. Pleasant, and Charles Edwin Swigart, of Logansport, Ind., were married at Baltimore yesterday. Although the engagement was generally known among the friends of the bride and bridegroom, the wedding comes as a surprise. The Rev. E. L. Hubbard, pastor of the Eutaw Place Methodist Episcopal Church, of Baltimore, officiated.

The bride attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Herbert Pillsbury, of Washington. The bride looked charming in a tailor gown of golden brown broadcloth, a leghorn hat, trimmed with brown velvet and opals. She carried violets. Mrs. Pillsbury, as matron of honor, wore a smart princess gown of velvet of a slightly darker shade. Her hat was of brown straw with trimmings of shaded pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Swigart will make Washington their home. Mr. Swigart is a member of the District National Guard.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin P. Huestes, the bride's mother, yesterday afternoon, Miss Mary C. Lains was married to Richard T. Evans, of the United States Geological Survey. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. George E. Maydwell, pastor of Waugh Methodist Episcopal Church, of Washington. The bride was attended by her relatives and intimate friends. The bride was attired in a princess gown of cream colored Japanese silk and Irish point lace, a ruby and diamond brooch, the present of the bridegroom, was the only ornament. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Inez Parker, the bridegroom's best man being his brother, John P. Evans. The wedding was the culmination of a romance of school days in the Eastern
